DALAT

Dalat Palace Golf Club

Affectionately known as 'Petit Paris', the Dalat Palace Golf Club makes full use of its mountainous setting and cooler climates, enjoying breathtaking views of the famous Xuan Huong Lake. Located 1,500m above sea-level in the Vietnam Highlands, this course has royal roots stemming back to the 1920s. Redeveloped in 1994, the undulating course layout is demanding with a series of lakes and strategically placed bunkers. Appreciate the beautiful French colonial inspired architecture at the clubhouse. This is a delightful course and a must-play.

About Vietnam Golf Courses

DANANG

Montgomerie Links Vietnam

This Montgomerie Links Vietnam is a stunning modern links style course situated at the foot of the Marble Mountains on Vietnam's magical Central Coast. This Colin Montgomerie has received many awards and accolades and is widely considered to be one of the best courses not just in Vietnam but in Asia. Montgomerie has worked with the natural terrain of sandy soil, wind-blown dunes and indigenous vegetation to create a masterpiece and a sheer delight to have a round on.

Designer	: Colin Montgomerie
Holes / Par / Yardage	: 18 Holes / Par 72 / 7,091yds
Established	: 2008
Distance	: 17km Southeast from Danang International Airport
Facilities	: Accommodation, Golf Academy, Restaurant, Sauna

Danang Golf Club, Dunes Course

One of Greg Norman's personal favourites to play, the Norman-designed Danang Golf Club is reminiscent of both Scottish links golf and Australian sand-belt courses. Consistently rated as one of Vietnam's top golf courses, Danang Golf Club is a must play. Strategy is key around these well-bunkered and undulating greens, while its fairways are well protected by needle pines and trees.

The signature 148-yard, par-3 16th, plays to a slightly elevated green framed by two of the course's deepest bunkers and against the back-drop of the South China Sea.

Designer	: Greg Norman
Holes / Par / Yardage	: 18 Holes / Par 72 / 7,160yds
Established	: 2010
Distance	: 16km South from Danang International Airport
