Day 1: Arrive to Bangkok – Hua Hin

Arrive in Bangkok airport, your tour guide or driver will meet and welcome you. Heading west-south towards Gulf of Thailand (around 3 hours) and arrive at Hua Hin. Tee off for your arrival game of golf in Springfield Royal Country Club. It is located off the Hua Hin bypass road near Cha Am. The course is rated as one of the best Hua Hin golf courses and the traditional Jack Nicklaus layout has managed to uphold its reputation. The course at Springfield Royal Country Club has been created to meet the high standards of a reputable championship golf course without compromising its ability to remain as an enjoyable challenge for golfers from all levels. Each hole has a minimum of five tees to play from, but only the bold and the experienced will embark on the black tee. Water hazards are quite frequent and each hole presents its own unique challenge and character requiring finesse or unrestraint.

After golf, proceed to your hotel and check in for a 7 nights stay.

Day 2: Hua Hin (Breakfast)

This morning, get ready to enjoy your 2nd round of golf game in Black Mountain Golf Club. Black Mountain has everything you would expect from a world-class golf resort. On top of being acknowledged as one of the best championship course in Asia, it is the only course in Thailand ever named in Golf Digest's Top 100 Courses outside the region of USA. At Black Mountain Golf Club, you will experience golf at its very best in a natural and beautiful setting, with amazing vistas from almost every hole. The golf club offers a challenging yet highly enjoyable design and tour-standard conditioning. Since its opening in 2007, Black Mountain has hosted three Asian Tour events, including the 2014 King's Cup held in January, the co-sanctioned Asian Tour and European Tour event True Thailand Classic, and has won a string of international awards, including best course in Thailand for the past four years in a row, and "Best Course in Asia Pacific" 2014.

Day 3: Hua Hin (Breakfast)

Relax and play a game of golf in Banyan Golf Club. The Banyan Golf Club in Hua Hin is opened in October 2008, built among a pineapple plantation. Immediately, upon opening, the course was awarded 2009 Best New Course in Asia Pacific by the readers of Asian Golf Monthly. Since then Banyan golf course and clubhouse has steadily claimed 'Top 3 in Thailand' awards and been highlighted in the 'Rolex Top 1000' in the World. The world class 18-hole championship golf course was designed by professional golf course architect Pirapon Namatra from Golf East and the course is recognized as one of the best layouts in the country.

Day 4: Hua Hin (Breakfast)

This morning, gear up to play a round of golf game in The Imperial Lake View Resort & Golf Club. The Club offers 36 holes of golf in Hua Hin. The golf course is warmly received by both residents and visitors to the area and is situated inland, surrounded by small farms and fruit orchids on a large parkland parcel. For many golfers, this is the most beautiful and smoothing golf course in Hua Lin. The Imperial Lake View 18-hole A-B course features small streams and a large lake segregating the course in two segments. This, together with mature trees, blind shots to some greens, undulating fairways and several doglegs, test the skills of experienced and seasoned golfers.

Day 5: Hua Hin (Breakfast)

Today, get ready to enjoy your 5th round of golf game in Sea Pines Golf Course (also known as Army Golf Club II). The course is constructed along the gulf of Thailand in the Suan Son Pradiphat (Sea Pine Tree Garden). Most area within the Sea Pines are comprised of bracken pine trees and enriched by the beauty of oceans and mountains. The army originally developed the site as a form of retreat for serving soldiers and veterans and their families. The Sea Pines course design and layout have been developed to give golfers a wide range of challenge. Depending on wind conditions, the course difficulty will vary. The course is created with six holes lying on the beachside.

Day 6: Hua Hin (Breakfast)

Swing your golf clubs at Majestic Creek Country Club. It has a difficult course that was rated by German magazine as Hua Hin's best golf course. This view is being shared among many Hua Hin locals and expatriates. The country club is designed by Dr. Sukkitti Klangvisai, a professional Thai golf course designer who is also responsible for Phuket's Loch Palm. Majestic Creek is perhaps the best laid out golf course in Hua Hin. Majestic Creek Country Club is being built in the foothills 20 kilometers west of Hua Hun. The journey towards the course provides rural views of Thai life including sugar cane, tapioca, pineapple plantations and farms.

Day 7: Hua Hin (Breakfast)

Tee off at Royal Hua Hin Golf Club. Royal Hua Hin is unmistakably the oldest 18-hole international standard golf course in Thailand and is only 5 minutes from downtown Hua Hin. The course was commissioned in 1924 to accommodate the interests of the British railway workers and Thai aristocracy living in the area. The course is built on natural terrain and set between some breathtaking rocky hills. Spectacular views of the Gulf of Thailand and the city center are possible from several holes. A major renovation in the 1980's brought this course up to international standards, despite its age. Mature tree lined fairways are now abundant.

Day 8: Depart from Hua Hin – Bangkok (Breakfast)

Morning prepare to challenge your last round of golf game in Palm Hills Golf Club. Palm Hills Golf Club is situated between Hua Hin and Cha Am, near the airport and on the lower foot hills above town. It was the first international standard Hua Hin golf course opened in 1992. The following year Palm Hills hosted the Inaugural Thailand World Pro Am tournament. The golf course is laid out on a long strip of rolling terrain which gives the course a Scottish feel, differentiating itself from many courses in the area. The Max Wexler layout goes from east to west, with lakes at each end separated by the clubhouse and an interesting rocky outcrop extending from the mountain range. After golf, departure transfer to Bangkok airport for homebound flight.
