Day 1 : Arrival in Muscat

Upon arrival, the tour guide will bring you on a brief tour around the fascinating Old Muscat. Visit the Al Alam Palace (“Flag Palace”), which represents the best in contemporary Islamic design and architecture. Explore the prominent historical landmarks of the city, the Al Jalali Fort and the Mirani Fort, located at the entrance to the scenic Muscat Bay. Enjoy breathtaking views overlooking the harbour and the old city, with the mountains in the distance. Venture into the famous Muttrah Souk, a traditional bazaar of colourful shops and alleyways that sell everything from fabric and clothing to exotic spices and crafts. Proceed to check-in to the hotel for a 4 nights stay.

Day 2 : Muscat (Breakfast)

Your first round of golf will begin at the Ghala Golf Club. Built into a wadi (natural dry riverbed), the course meanders through a beautiful setting of mountainous backdrops and sea views. This par 72 course measures at 6,523 yards off the white tees. Accuracy off the tee is key, with narrow landing areas and wasteland coming into play. The undulating terrain of the fairways and greens keeps this course interesting and challenging.

Day 3 : Muscat (Breakfast)

Play at Oman’s first 18-hole grass golf course, the Muscat Hills Golf Club which measures at 6,850 yards from the blue tees. Unlike Ghala, this Paul Thomas design is hilly with generous fairways. Be prepared to hit some challenging shots over wadi wasteland, while admiring the majestic Al Hajar Mountains in the backdrop.

Day 4 : Muscat (Breakfast)

Your Oman golfing escapade will culminate in a round at the magnificent Almouj Golf. The legendary Greg Norman designed the sultanate’s first links-style championship course, which was ranked the 2nd Best Golf Course in the Middle East by Golf Digest. The myriad of bunkers, water hazards and natural dunes provide a distinctly different challenge for each of the 18 holes. This 6,880-yard course (from the blue tees) runs alongside the scenic Sea of Oman.

Day 5 : Departure from Muscat (Breakfast)

Free till departure transfer from hotel to airport for homebound flight.
