* 6D5N Best of Chiangmai, Pai, Phayao + Chiangrai Tour * (Pansy Package)

Day 1: Arrival to Chiangmai - Pai (Dinner)

Pai's Country Experience

Upon arrival at Chiangmai, you will be welcomed by your tour guide at the airport to transfer to Pai.

Once a quiet market village influenced by Burma culture, it is now a famous tourism town in northern Thailand near the Myanmar border, filled with wholesome activities and picturesque scenery. Stop by the historical Memorial Bridge, originally built by the Japanese soldiers during World War II. Enjoy a cup of rich coffee and indulge in tasty desserts at the most famous coffee shop in Pai – Coffee In Love. Thereafter, take a walk at Pai Night Market and stay overnight at Pai.

Day 2: Pai - Chiangmai (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Pai's Cultural Experience

Start your day with a tour to Wat Nam Hoo, an important temple in the area with a sacred Chiang Saen-style Buddha image said to have once emitted holy water from its head. Next, visit Yunan Village, where you can try original Yunnan Chinese food and experience the Yunnan way of life. Following, sample fresh strawberries and cool down with a refreshing strawberry smoothie at Love Pai Strawberry Café, before transferring back to Chiangmai. Go on a tuktuk sightseeing trip in Chiangmai this evening, and end the night enjoying Thai dancing shows with a Khantoke dinner.

Day 3: Chiangmai – Chiangrai (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Charming Chiangmai

Start the day at the Elephant Camp, where you will get to watch delightful elephant shows and have fun riding on them. Thereafter, enjoy the entertaining antics and performances at the Monkey Show, as well as the Human & Snake Fighting Show. Afterwards, enjoy a refreshing soak at Mae Kajan Hotspring with free hot coffee being served. Following, visit the Wat Phra That Mae Chedi Museum where you will learn about the history of the region through artefacts on display. Lastly, stop at Wang

Macha Mae Chide, which means “fish empire” in Thai, before checking in to a hot spring house hotel for a good night's rest.

Day 4: Chiangrai - Phayao - Chiangrai (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Temple Marvels

This morning, travel to Phayao to visit Kwan Phayao (Phayao Lake), one of the largest semi-natural freshwater lakes in northern Thailand. After that, stop at Wat Sri Kom Kham where the largest Chiang Saen era Buddha statue in the country can be found. Next, visit Wat Sai Khaow temple where Buddhist monks meditate in the serenity of this natural forest location. On the way back to Chiangrai, visit the grand Wat Huay Pla Kang housing the Goddess of Mercy, as well as the architectural marvels of the White Temple (Wat Rongkhun). In the evening, take a walk at the Night Bazaar and stay overnight at Chiangrai.

Day 5: Chiangrai - Chiangmai (Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner)

Opium Journey

Begin your day with a tour to the Golden Triangle Opium House which houses opium tools, relics, paintings and some handicraft items related to the cultural heritage of Chiang Rai province. After that, visit Mae Sai, the northernmost town of Thailand, before transferring back to Chiangmai for the night.

Day 6: Departure from Chiangmai (Breakfast, Lunch)

3D Museum Fun

This morning, visit the 3D Art Museum, an arty playground filled with creative, colourful 3D art by South Korean artists. The 3D artworks come alive when viewed through a camera lens. If time permits, you can do so last minute shopping at Central Plaza before departure transfer to airport for homebound flight.
